COACHING INSTITUTE WITH DR. JIM KNIGHT

October 14 – 15, 2010 & April 18 – 19, 2011

downtown Kingston, ON

This four-day interactive learning institute is ideal for administrators, instructional coaches, and district staff who facilitate professional learning. Participants will gain a solid foundation regarding the principles of instructional coaching and understand what good coaching looks like and how to achieve it. The institute will provide a foundation upon which an effective instructional coaching program can be built within the context of the broader professional learning facilitated by schools and districts. Implementing rich instructional practice is key to improving student achievement; in this institute you will learn how to support change in classrooms through meaningful dialogue, reflection, and planning.

Who should attend?

This institute is most appropriate for professional developers, and other educational professionals, who are interested in learning about how to accelerate professional learning in schools and districts including school administrators, school leaders, instructional coaches, supervisory officers, system professional learning consultants, and teachers.
